

Island Art News

Hawai'i's Guide to Art & Creative Events

Island Art News is a Hawai'i-based arts publication covering exhibitions, art walks, fairs, markets, and creative events across the islands.

We curate monthly event roundups and highlight local artists, galleries, and cultural spaces—serving both the arts community and the public through clear, consistent, and editorial coverage.

Island Art News reaches:

- Local artists and creatives
- Gallery owners and arts organizations
- Collectors and cultural supporters
- Residents and visitors interested in Hawai'i's art scene

Our readers value authenticity, community, and locally grounded arts coverage.

Website: Monthly event roundups and features

Facebook: Monthly highlights and community updates

Instagram: Visual storytelling and event awareness

Partnership Opportunities

Island Art News offers flexible, editorial-style sponsorships designed to support Hawai'i's arts community while providing meaningful visibility for partners.